

To: ICMI Country Representatives (icmi-representatives@mathunion.org) and IMU Adhering Organizations

From: Jean-Luc Dorier, ICMI Secretary General

Dear colleagues,

As previously announced, ICMI is now launching the first two steps of the Process of Election of the ICMI Executive Committee (EC) for the 2025-2028 term in office.

The whole process is described in a pdf document online:

https://www.mathunion.org/fileadmin/IMU/EC/Procedures_ICMI_2006-31-12_2012-01.pdf

Step 1: Formation of the EC Nominating Committee (NC)

The Nominating Committee is in charge of the composition of the slate, which will be presented towards the election of the ICMI EC 2025-2028. We are happy to announce that Professor Abraham Arcavi has been appointed as the Chairperson, and the other members of the Committee will be selected according to the ICMI statutes. We hereby invite you to submit candidacies for members of the Nominating Committee. Please note that the deadline for submission of candidates for becoming members of this committee is December 1st, 2022.

Nominations of members of the NC (one per country) should be sent via e-mail to the ICMI president (icmi.president@mathunion.org) from an official e-mail address of the AO/ICMI representative. Only ICMI representatives can send nominations for this committee.

Once the appointment of all its members is completed, the Nominating Committee will start working on Step 2, which consists of collecting nominations for the slate, and forming it in order to be presented towards the election of the next ICMI Executive Committee. This election will take at the ICMI General Assembly, on July 7th, 2024 in Sydney - one day prior to the ICME-15.

Step 2: Call for Nominations for the offices of ICMI President, ICMI Secretary General, ICMI Vice Presidents and ICMI EC Members-at-Large for the term January 1st 2025 – December 31st 2028

ICMI hereby invites submission of nominations for each of the ICMI EC positions:

- ICMI President,
- ICMI Secretary-General,
- ICMI Vice-Presidents (2) and
- ICMI EC Members-at-Large (5)

Each nomination should include:

- The candidate's full name and country of work
- The position for which he/she is nominated
- The candidate's CV (maximum of two pages)
- A statement in which the candidate declares her/his willingness to serve
- The candidate's vision, motivation and plans for her/his term in office if elected
- Letters of support (optional)

Nominations for President and Secretary General must be received by April 1, 2023, and nominations for the other positions must be received by June 1, 2023.

All nominations should be sent to Abraham Arcavi (abraham.arcavi@weizmann.ac.il), Chair of the Nominating Committee and cc to the ICMI President: (icmi.president@mathunion.org). After sending your nomination(s), you should receive an acknowledgement from Abraham Arcavi. If no acknowledgment is received within a week, please resend the nomination(s) until such acknowledgement is received.

Nominations must be sent from an official e-mail address of the AO/ICMI representative. Only ICMI representatives can send nominations.

For further details regarding this process, please consult :

<https://www.mathunion.org/icmi/nomination-members-icmi-ec-2025-2028>

Sincerely,

Jean-Luc Dorier
ICMI Secretary-General